

TODAY'S REPORTS FROM FRONT CAUSE UNEASINESS IN RUSSIA

CZAR'S WHOLE ARMY IS IN GREAT DANGER

Japanese Capture Many Russian Stores

English Paper Hears That Czar Has Outlined His Terms of Peace.

Birmingham, March 28.—The Post today says it has excellent authority for the statement that a memorandum outlining the terms which would be acceptable to Russia in the event of peace,
has been received from St. Petersburg at the foreign office.
A similar note was sent to Paris.
The paper says and it regards this fact of great significance.

(Bulletin.)

St. Petersburg, March 28.—The greatest uneasiness is caused by the late reports from the front, which indicate that the Japanese are engaged in carrying out wider flanking movements than has been considered possible by military experts. Reports, which come through Chinese sources, state that the Japanese forces are being pushed rapidly toward both the northeast and northwest. Tsitsikar, 200 miles northwest of Harbin, is reported to be the Japanese objective point in that direction and Ninguta, half-way between Harbin and Vladivostok, according to the same reports, is the object of the forces of the enemy moving toward the northeast. Should the Japanese be able to reach Tsitsikar,
General Linevitch's communications would be cut and he would find the Japanese army barring his retreat back to Siberia. If the Japanese can reach Ninguta to the northeast they would be in a position to move on Vladivostok and invest that place without serious opposition from the Russians. The fear of the war office that these movements are actually being carried out by the Japanese is increased by late messages received from Gen. Linevitch.

If the Japanese have had time to push their advance, as the Chinese reports say they have been doing steady-ly, it will be almost impossible for General Linevitch to get his army to Tsitsikar before the Japanese. Failure to do this might entail the loss of the entire Russian army. With the line of supplies cut, Linevitch could not resist the Japanese any length of time. The country could not support the army
long, and the Russian commander would be forced to either surrender or attempt to cut his way through the Japanese army to retreat into Russian territory. That the Japanese propose to invest Vladivostok shortly is evident from the flanking movement in the direction of Ninguta. If the Japanese can reach that point in the next few days, they will be able to prevent the sending of reinforcements to Vladivostok and stop the stocking of the place with supplies to withstand a long siege.

NOGI AT KIRIN
Paris, March 28.—The Echo de Paris
prints a dispatch today from St. Petersburg saying there is a rumor there that General Nogi has reached Kirin.

ALARM THE LIBERALS

Disorder Among the Lowly Not to Their Liking—Whole Russian Empire Disturbed.

St. Petersburg, March 28.—The internal situation is causing great anxiety, though it is said that the "intellectuals" and the educated classes
generally disapprove of the revolutionary spirit which is permeating the peasantry and laborers in Poland. The Crimea is boiling with discontent and the military has been invoked to crush the incipient revolution at Yalta, near the emperor's summer residence. The spirit of disorder has spread to Sebastopol. Moderate liberals in St. Petersburg are becoming alarmed at the situation, reports having been received showing that an actual revolutionary propaganda is being pushed with vigor in many sec-

MILLION WORKMEN IN SPAIN ARE ON VERGE OF STARVATION

MADRID, March 28.—The inability of thousands of workmen in Andalusian and Eastern provinces to obtain food has been responsible for considerable rioting in these districts, and fears are entertained that more serious trouble will result. The prolonged drought has wrought havoc with agriculture in these provinces, and enormous damage has been done. It is estimated that nearly 1,000,000 workmen are without food. Driven to desperation by the dread of starvation, the workmen have threatened to fire the villas and are pillaging farmhouses.

tions of the empire. The authorities of the government of Saratoff are closing the schools there on account of the peasant disturbances.

The impression prevalent in some military circles that the Japanese, having removed the possibility of the main army in Manchuria assuming the initiative, will now turn their attention to the next objective of the war, Vladivostok, is strengthened by the dispatch from Gungshu Pass announcing the withdrawal of the Japanese from the immediate front of the Russian army for a distance of 35 miles south. It is realized, of course, that this may be merely a blind, to cover flanking operations; but it is not improbable that the Japanese, having cleared southern Manchuria of Russian troops and secured a position whence expulsion would be a long and difficult process, may be satisfied to hold the Tie Pass line without further extension of communication. While the voice of Emperor Nicholas' advisers is for peace if honorable terms are obtainable, the government, as is the part of wisdom, is going forward with all provisions for the continuance of the war. Preparations are reported to be making for the mobilization of five corps. It had been understood that the guards would be retained in St. Petersburg, but some of the officers of this crack organization
believe their services have been requisitioned and are making preparations to go to the front.

Mr. McCormick had farewell audiences of the emperor and empress at Tsarskoe Selo, special permission having been granted him to make his formal adieu without the presentation of his official letters of recall, which have not arrived. This arrangement was made in deference to the wish of President Roosevelt that Mr. McCormick proceed to Paris without delay.
The ambassador took a train for Tsarskoe Selo and was met at the station there with a state coach with outdoors and driven to the Alexander palace, where he was received in audience by the emperor, who chatted with him for 20 minutes on various topics, not alluding, however, to the war. Mr. McCormick was then received by the empress and the dowager empress, all three of the royal personages presenting him with their autograph portraits. M. Meyer, who is to succeed Mr. McCormick as American ambassador to Russia, will not arrive for a week.

CZAR LOSES VALUABLE STORES.
St. Petersburg, March 28.—The Russian rear guard has fallen back from its position about 13 miles north of Sipinghai, 74 miles north of Tie pass,
to Chaoumladozi, 49 miles below Gunshu pass. Practically complete reports show the Russian army sacrificed the general commissariat stores to the amount of $1,250,000, and stores for the army corps amounting to $590,000
at Mukden.

JUDGE TAYLER DENIES WOMAN NEW TRIAL

Not Particularly Affected by Her Fate

Action Taken by Defense for a Review of Chadwick Case by Higher Court.

Cleveland, O., March 28.—Ex-Judge F. J. Wing the former Newark man, who is counsel for Mrs.
Chadwick, will leave for Cincinnati tonight or early tomorrow
to ask the Circuit Court of Appeals to reverse Judge Tayler's decision and grant his client a new trial,
also to ask a stay of execution of her 10 year sentence. Practically the same reason will be urged with perhaps some additions, as were urged in the petition filed in this district asking for a new trial. District Attorney Sullivan will oppose Judge Wing's motion. Her attorneys intend to carry the case to the U. S. Supreme court, if it is necessary. Her presence here is necessary for appearance in the bankruptcy proceedings and other federal court matters, and it is believed she will be confined in the county jail
for some time yet.

Cleveland, O., March 28.—The motion filed by the attorneys of Mrs.
Cassie Chadwick for a new trial was overruled by Judge R. W. Tayler in United States court, and sentence was imposed at once on the woman. Unless the higher court interferes, Mrs.
Chadwick will spend the major portion of the next decade in the Ohio penitentiary. She was convicted on seven counts and sentenced upon six counts. For four of these counts a sentence of two years each was imposed. Upon two counts a sentence of one year each was imposed, making a total sentence of 10 years. Mrs.
Chadwick was not particularly affected when informed of her fate, and remarked to the court before sentence was pronounced that she had nothing to say.

Attorney J. P. Dawley of counsel for the convicted woman took exceptions to the sentences upon each count except the first count. The defense intends to make the claim that the court can not impose a separate sentence for each count; that the law applies to the general charge instead of each incident of a general charge.
The various counts of the indictment are considered by the defense to refer
only to details of the general defense.
This point will also be contested in the higher court, as will the other point of the Chadwick trial which resulted in her conviction. Either Judge Francis J. Wing or Mr. Dawley will go to Cincinnati to make arrangements for a review of the case by the United States circuit court of appeals.
The first step taken by the defense
will be to ask for a stay of sentence until the appeal is tried out. There will be no attempt to execute the sentence until the defense has had an opportunity to carry up the case. Mrs.
Chadwick will be defended to the last
court.

No action will be taken by United States Attorney Sullivan regarding the other six indictments against Mrs.
Chadwick in the federal court until the present case is finally disposed of.
If the present case and sentence is sustained by the last court the other cases will be dropped, otherwise they will be used against the woman.

State Funeral Today.

Washington, March 28.—A state funeral was held today over the remains ambassador to the United States, attended by President Roosevelt. The body will be sent to Mexico, April 8.

Convict Kills Another.

Pittsburg, March 28.—Charles Turner, aged 30, a convict at the penitentiary here, was murdered this morning by Paul Kruger, a prisoner. The men got into a dispute while at work.
Kruger stabbed Turner with a knife.

WOMAN MADE MAD FOR LOVE OF MAN

MRS. BROCKWELL POISONED HER HELPLESS CHILDREN IN KENTUCKY.

Was Preparing to Murder Fourth—The Woman's Confession Implicates a Paducah Farmer.

Paducah, Ky., March 28.—By her
confession yesterday afternoon, Mrs.
Mary Brockwell branded herself as one of the most inhuman criminals imaginable. For the love of a man, George Albritton, a farm-hand, she admitted murdering three of her four little children, an intended killing the surviving one. Both the mother and Albritton are under arrest.

Last Friday evening the family, consisting of Mrs. Brockwell and her four children, had cabbage for supper. Ola, aged 4, Lillie, aged 3, and Lucy, aged 9, ate much of the cabbage, while the mother and Hazel, the surviving child,
did not eat any of it.

After the supper the three children
became unconscious, and died the following morning. Suspicion was directed toward Mrs. Brockwell. The children's stomachs were sent to Louisville for an examination. As some of the same cabbage was decayed inside
many believed the mother innocent.

After a vigorous "sweating" by Detectives Baker and Moore, Mrs. Brock-well confessed yesterday afternoon
that she placed morphine and coal oil in the cabbage. The palate of Hazel's mouth was sore and she could not eat
any of it, as the coal oil hurt her mouth.

In her confession Mrs. Brockwell
said that Albritton suggested the deed, promising to marry her after the children were out of the way. She admitted that her insane love for him
prompted her to commit the atrocious crime, which was the most shocking ever perpetrated in Paducah. After her confession she donned a sunbonnet, and, entering a hack with the detectives, was driven to police headquarters. A crowd began to assemble and she was sent to the county jail.

At 6 o'clock Albritton was apprehended. He was taken before Chief of Police Collins, who questioned him, but he denied any connection with the case. He also was taken to the county jail.

Last night Mrs. Brockwell showed signs of collapsing, and it is believed when she takes the witness stand her story will be the most thrilling and horrifying ever told in a local court. She said:

"Yes, I killed my children, but ever since I have wished them back."

Many believe the woman insanely
in love with Albritton, and they blame him for the deed. Feeling against him is at high tension. She has a husband in the insane asylum. It is said her admiration for other men caused his mind to become affected.

Thousands of people have viewed
the remains of the pretty little chilren lying at Nance & Pool's undertaking establishment. At a late hour last night crowds were standing on the corners in the business section. Chief Collins has instructed the police to quell any demonstration.

SHE IS INSANE

Thinks Dr. Pendley, Who Will try to Place Mrs. Brockwell in Asylum.

Louisville, Ky., March 28.—Dr. J. W.
Pendley, the physician who brought the stomachs of the three Brockwell children from Paducah to this city for chemical analysis, when informed that the mother of the children has confessed administering the potion that caused their death, said:

"While it is a great shock to me, I maintained all the time that the children did not die from ptomaine poisons in the cabbage, as was the contention of many."

"It was an unnatural crime, and I don't see how the woman could have been in her right mind to have committed such a deed."

"The three little girls were all beautiful and perfectly formed, and it makes the heart sick to think that the soul of a mother could become so depraved as to kill her own offspring in such a manner."

"The family were often forced to call upon charitable institutions for help, the father, Lenny Brockwell, being confined in the asylum seven months ago. He became insane on the subject of religion. For some time Mrs. Brockwell has been keeping a boarding house for laborers. Two of her boarders were young fellows by the names of Burke and Powers, who were said to have been on intimate terms with her."

"I can't help but believe the woman is mentally unbalanced, and I shall use my influence to have her sent to the asylum. If she has confessed I shall defend her every way in my power."

"I have paid Dr. Vernon Robins $100
for the analysis of the stomachs which will take him three days to complete."

Dr. Pendley is county physician of McCracken county, and returned to Paducah last night.

PANIC AT A FIRE

Men Brushed Women Aside
to Make Their Escape

LARGE NUMBER OF GIRLS HURT

Piece of Paper Became Ignited Causing Cry of Fire and Panic
Soon Followed.

New York, March 28.—The cry of fire caused a furious panic among four hundred girls and men in the factory
of Max Roth, waists and millinery, 48-50 Walker street, this morning. A number of girls were injured, but only four badly enough to be removed to a hospital. All the men, it is said, escaped without a scratch. Their superior strength enabled them to brush
the girls aside or jump over their heads. That no one was killed is considered miraculous. Every one of the girls has bruises or scratches on her face or body. Some of the employees stated that a piece of paper became ignited, which caused the cry of fire to be raised. The police and firemen stopped the panic.

TOWN RAZED

Minnesota Village Practically Wiped
Out by Tornado and Several People Injured.

St. Paul, Minn., March 28.—A report reached this city that the little town of Louisburg, in the extreme western portion of the state, had been practically wiped out by a tornado, and that seven persons had been seriously injured. Louisburg is a town of about 100 inhabitants in Lac Qui Parle county, and has neither telephone nor telegraph connection with the outside world. Reports from nearby towns, however, state that three store buildings were entirely demolished and that every residence in the town was more or less damaged.

ROGERS EXPLAINS

Father of the Lad Who Has Returned
After Four Years Absence Makes
a Statement.

Chicago, March 28.—The first explanation of the mysterious disappearance of the boy Frank Ely Rogers and his aunt, Miss Florence Ely, four years ago at Evanston, was made by James C. Rogers, father of the boy.
Mr. Rogers said: "At the time of the disappearance my son Frank was fired with a desire to run away from home and see life for himself. His aunt, a sufferer from melancholia, was about to be placed by us in a sanitarium,
a proceeding to which she strongly objected. As a result of these circumstances the two left home together
and went to Buffalo. There they separated, Miss Ely entering a large store apparently to do some shopping and leaving Frank outside. She had previously given him a small sum of money. From that time until now Frank has not been seen. Miss Ely, and neither he nor we know her whereabouts."

Under New Anti-Trust Law of Arkansas—Insurance Companies Are Defendants.

Little Rock, Ark., March 28.—Attorney General L. R. Rogers instituted the first suits under the new anti-trust law of Arkansas. The defendants are the German Alliance Insurance company and the Hartford Insurance company of Hartford, Conn., which are alleged to have transacted business in this state since the new law became effective last Friday and to have violated the anti-compact clause of the act. The complaint concludes with a request for judgment in the sum of $5,000 against each company and that the defendants' right to do business in Arkansas be declared forfeited. The attorney general announces that separate and similar suits will be instituted for each day the companies
transact business in the state.

Mt. Vernon, O., March 28.—The directors of the Mt. Vernon baseball club have figured out that the sum of $300 will yet be required before a baseball team can be supported in this city. A large sum was raised last week and the directors were so encouraged that they have decided to take a few days this week in an effort to raise the remaining $300. It is believed that this sum can be secured soon.

A rumor is in circulation that another new pitcher has been signed by the Mt. Vernon team for the season, but his name is not made public for the present.

IMPORTANT SUIT

Won by Game Warden Porterfield That Will Interest the Market Men All Over Ohio.

The state fish and game commission won a contention in the prosecution of the proprietor of the Sheriff street market house, Cleveland, that will be of peculiar interest to market men all over the state.

Chief Game Warden Porterfield seized a consignment of English pheasants on sale at the market house and prosecuted the proprietor on 26 charges. The case was fought stubbornly through the Cuyahoga county courts.

Porterfield's contention was that English pheasants, being now raised in Ohio, were natives of this state, and under the law could not be placed on sale in Ohio, even though purchased in New York. His position was upheld in the courts and the market man finally surrendered. The case represents an outlay by the offender of approximately $350.

ALABAMA QUAIL

Brought to Ohio and Liberated—New Method Proves That They Will Stay Here.

Game Warden Porterfield has completed the liberation of 135 Alabama quail, secured under the appropriation made by the commission by the last legislature.

They were liberated at different places throughout the state in localities found particularly suitable, and all upon protected land. Nearly all of them have taken up residence, so to speak, where released. Heretofore experiments with imported quail have not been particularly successful, owing to the methods employed in liberating them. The plan has generally been to loose the birds from their boxes in the daytime and usually they flew away in fright. Often they became separated. In these later experiments the birds have been freed in the morning after having been kept in captivity several days in the heart of the district where it was desired to have them become located. Open wire coops have been used for their detention.

At night the coops would be opened, so that at daylight the birds might get out to find plenty of food scattered about the coops. All around in the immediate vicinity as well would be scattered shocks of fodder for roosting places if they wanted to remain.

It has been found that in this manner the birds became associated with their surroundings very readily and seldom leave the vicinity of their liberation. Alabama quail are smaller than the native Ohio bird and somewhat lighter in color. They are extremely hardy.

No further shipments will be received this spring, as the mating season now on in the South has put an end to further trapping of the birds.

The President's "Tight Grip."

Mr. Roosevelt declares he will not be a candidate for President in 1908, and the people generally credit the presidential declaration. At least he says he will not be a candidate, and believes he will not be. The Springfield (Mass.) Union, declares that four years hence "the people may rebuke Congress for its unwarranted opposition to the policies of the President by making the President again their candidate, and he may change his mind and reconsider his declaration." That is the shape the question of nomination in 1908 will probably take, although the President may remain fixed in his purpose not to be a candidate a second time. The World suggests that for reasons of his own "the President is keeping a tight grip on the Republican organization," and instances the recent appointment of New, of Indiana, as chairman of the Republican National Committee as indicating the presidential wishes, as New's appointment is believed to be an unfriendly act towards Mr. Fairbanks, who is believed to be a regular aspirant for the presidential nomination in the usual form, in the way of setting up the necessary machinery. As another indication of the "tight grip" of the President on the party organization, the selection of Mr. Babcock, of Wisconsin, by Mr. Cortelyou as the National committeeman from Wisconsin is put down as a direct slap at Governor La Follette, who is a presidential candidate with a great showing of strength back of him on the trust and railroad fare questions. The fact is that Governor La Follette is more talked of today than any Western politician for the presidential succession.

President Roosevelt secured control of the Republican organization by hard fighting last year; he is not disposed to surrender that advantage, and he has an able and effective backer in Mr. Cortelyou, who is practically the head of the Republican organization at this time. If he persists in his refusal to accept the presidential nomination in 1908 the President will be in a position to dictate or name the nominee. In the hope of presidential support there are four or five presidential aspirants, who are by no means hiding the light of their desires under a bushel. There are the vice president, Mr. Fairbanks, and Governor La Follette, of Wisconsin, and to them may be added the names of Secretary Taft of Ohio, and Mr. Root of New York. The Republican politician will not go far wrong when he ties his faith to the claims and ambitions of any one of these four politicians, who may be said to be already in the field in the open as well as under disguise.

HAS GOOD REASON

TO REMEMBER NEWARK FLOOD OF SEVEN YEARS AGO.

Cleveland Man Had a Narrow Escape on East Main Street Bridge Just Before it Was Spent Away.

"Springtime never comes, or high waters feared that I am not made to remember the flood at Newark, which was just seven years ago last Thursday," said N. E. Patterson, of Cleveland, in a talk with a reporter at Columbus Monday.

"It wasn't such a dreadful flood; not that. There have been many worse, but I was afforded a fright I shall never forget. I had been in the town for several days prior to the trouble and it had rained steadily, and the North Fork, being swollen by the in-pouring of its tributary creeks, spread wide over its banks into the city. In its center it was a raging torrent, and three bridges were borne down by it. While considerable excitement prevailed all over the city, yet I paid but little heed to the matter, thinking it of no particular consequence. I had slept in quiet during the night of the rapid rise of the water. I took breakfast early, and went onto the street about 6 o'clock. Having business across the river, in East Newark, I started for that part of the city. Coming to the bridge I noticed that it was in apparent danger of losing its foundation and of being carried away, but I had no thought that it was going to happen so soon. I shall never forget the fear I felt, after getting on the structure. The mad, swirling waters beat against it like a veritable battering ram and it swayed and creaked like a thing alive. I fully realized my great danger, and hurried with all possible speed to the opposite side. Yes, I reached it in safety, but another lost his life not ten minutes after. He reached the middle before the timbers gave way, then tried to get back where he started, but could not. The thought of my narrow escape will never leave me."

FRANK D. HALL INTERESTED

Our Leading Druggist, has Combined With One Thousand Other Druggists Who Are Leaders of the Drug Business in the United States.

One thousand retail druggists who are the leaders of the drug trade of the United States and that means the world, rated by Bradstreets and Duns at twenty million dollars and whose retail business aggregates over seventy million dollars annual sales, have agreed to give their name, financial backing and endorsement to the guarantee that Rexall Mucu-Tone will cure any disease or trouble arising from catarrh or they will refund the money. Mr. Frank D. Hall, our local druggist, says he is proud of his connection with the Rexall Remedies, particularly so of Mucu-Tone, and when asked why, stated that a remedy must be something out of the ordinary to get his backing. "It is not all profit," said Mr. Hall, "that leads me and my one thousand associates into endorsing this remedy, it is our years of experience with medicines and our knowledge of them that makes us believe that Rexall Mucu-Tone is a bona-fide discovery for the cure of all ailments due to catarrhal affection. We know that it is not a 'cure all,' but a remedy built on scientific lines and not a patent medicine as each one of the one thousand druggists knows its formula and its value. It has one great additional value besides curing constitutional catarrh—that it is a system builder. No such tonic was ever before designed for the curing of inflammation of the mucous membrane—not can it be improved on in the present age. Just stop and reason with yourself for one minute. We are doing business right here in your midst. Could we afford to offer our name and endorsement to Mucu-Tone as we do if we did not know that it was an honest medicine? Could we afford to agree as we do that we will refund every penny paid us for the medicine if it does not benefit?"

"All we ask is the customer's word and the empty bottles and we hand the money back. No signed certificate. We believe the public, especially the sick, are honest. Certainly every sick person who suffers from any of the following ailments should take advantage of our offer today. Rexall Mucu-Tone cures catarrh of the nose, throat, stomach, intestines, liver, kidneys or bladder, and any who are convalescing from sickness of any kind should take advantage of our offer and purchase what we recommend as the best tonic ever sold in a drug store. We have a large trial bottle at fifty cents and we guarantee it or refund your money."

CONTRACT FOR WOODSIDE SCHOOL

Bope & Bope of Thurston the Successful Bidders at Monday Night's Meeting of School Board--Old Woodside Building to be Razed and New One to be Erected at Once.

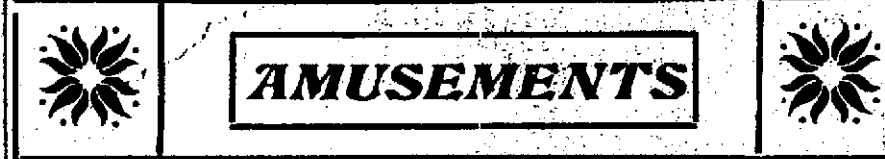

The Board of Education Monday night awarded the contract for the new Woodside school building to W. W. and E. E. Bope of Thurston, Ohio, their bid being the lowest in seven, $38,845. The awarding of the contract occurred after a two-hour executive session during which time the architect, Wilbur T. Mills of Columbus, and the heating and ventilating engineer, F. W. Gros Claud of Bartlett Bros., of Cleveland, were frequently called into the secret chamber to give information on the subject in hand.

For the heating and ventilating plant Fitzpatrick & Hoepfner of Columbus, drew the big prize and were awarded the contract, their bid being $5194 for a plant heating and ventilating eight rooms, all that will be used during the first year the building is occupied.

The bids for the construction of the building were made in two ways. One for the entire twelve rooms finished, and one for only eight rooms finished. The bids for the finished building were as follows:

- G. W. Doerzbach, Sandusky, $48,000.
- P. S. Phillips, Newark, 40,675.
- F. J. Herman, Toledo, $39,833.01.
- Walter P. Ferguson Newark, $44,999.18.
- West Virginia Architects and Builders, Huntington, W. Va., $40,000.
- Edgar A. Shauck, Newark, $40,385.11.
- W. W. & E. A. Bope, Thurston, O., $38,845.

The bids on the heating and ventilating were made in the same way.

LADY OF LYONS.

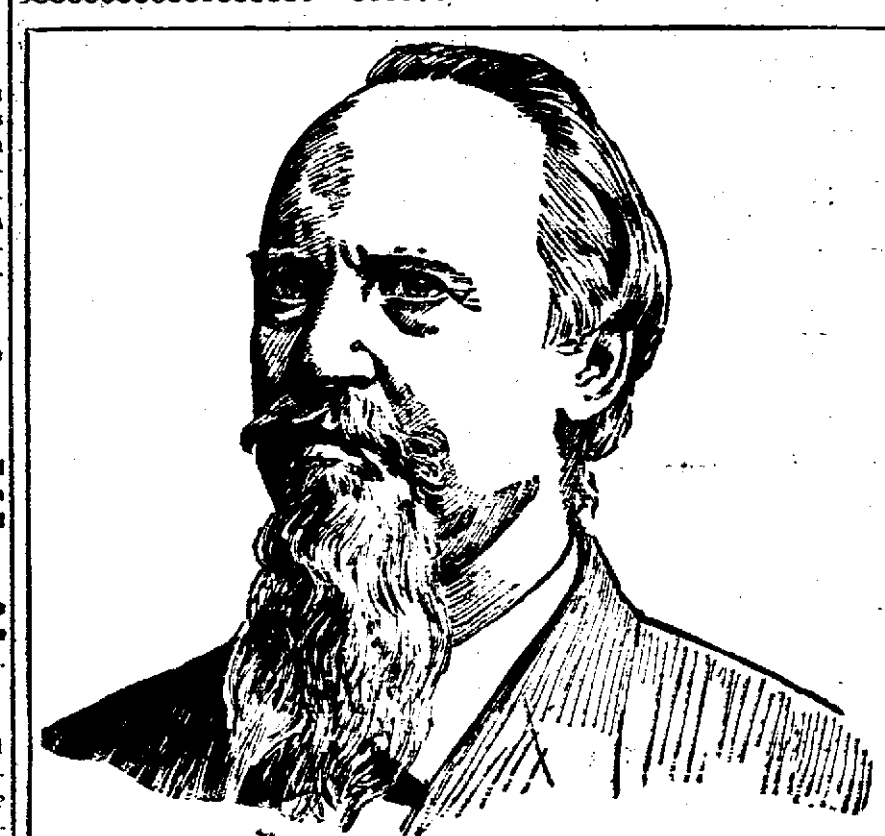

"The Lady of Lyons," which will be used by William Owen for his annual tour is the finest example of the romantic drama in the English language. Its revival just at this time is a happy one, for it will enable those interested in the theatre to see whether or not the drama has made any advance within the past fifty years. Don't miss this opportunity for it is not often that an actor is found who is capable of presenting "The Lady of Lyons," and their number is becoming less every year. At the Auditorium Wednesday evening. Seats now on sale at the box office.

LORD CHUMLEY.

Local theatregoers will have something to talk about with the coming presentation of "Lord Chumley" at the Auditorium theatre, for one performance, Tuesday evening. An unusual interest centers in this production, the joint work of the two master dramatists, David Belasco and H. C. DeMille. The titular role will be played by Cecil De Mille, who when the piece was written, was a mere child; and who, all unconsciously at the time was the inspiration for one of the funniest scenes. The story has only recently gotten out and will probably be new to our readers.

CINCINNATI ORCHESTRA.

Ahead the coming of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, which will give a concert at the Auditorium April 13, it is interesting to note that the conductor, Mr. Frank Van der Stucken, is a composer of world renown. His compositions are received with great favor among the best musicians of Europe, and one of his most recent productions "Pax Triumphans," a symphonic festival prologue, was recently played by the court orchestra in the Royal

DR. EMORY HUNT OF GRANVILLE

QUOTES SCRIPTURE IN REFERRING TO THE ROCKEFELLER INCIDENT.

One Minister Says Standard Oil King is Worse Than the Proprietors of Dens of Vice.

Denison university, Granville, is one of the schools to which John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil King, who is now under fire, has given $100,000. In these days when the public is stirred by the action of New England ministers towards Mr. Rockefeller's offer to one hundred thousand to the American Board of Missions, the following expression from D. E. W. Hunt, president of the Granville college will be of interest:

"With reference to criticism of the American Board I would suggest a thoughtful perusal and an intelligent application to our time commercially, industrially and ecclesiastically of the first verse of the second chapter of Paul's letter to the Romans: 'Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whoever thou art that judgest, for wherein thou judgest thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things'."

"EMORY W. HUNT.
"President Denison University."
Dispatches from many cities tell of attacks made by ministers in Sunday's sermons upon John D. Rockefeller and his gift of $100,000 to the American Board of Missions. In a Massachusetts church, one clergyman, Rev. Peter McQueen, said: "It is a pity we cannot get more from the infamous scoundrels who have spoiled our beautiful democratic ideals and made us a country ruled by base plutocracy. In the name of God, Mr. Rockefeller detaches God's image in man, and under the banner of the love of Christ he stands up to his elbows in blood. Therefore, let him make restitution."

One baptist preacher, Rev. H. S. Johnson, remarked: "I do not place Mr. Rockefeller's influence in the same class as that of a saloonkeeper or the proprietor of a den of vice. I consider it a thousand times worse." Rev. E. S. Stackpole, of Bradford, said: "It is a crying evil, and one that is a discredit to the legislatures of this country, that a man in 30 years can accumulate, by any means, a fortune of from $500,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 without getting into state prison." "The American Board ought not to be compromised by accepting a gift from a man so helplessly tangled in an unquitting business method," said Rev. J. G. Taylor in the Arlington Heights Congregational church at Boston.

Rockefeller Gift Unsolicited.
Boston, March 28.—In an interview Dr. James L. Barton, secretary of the American board of commissioners for missions, declared that the proposed gift of $100,000 by John D. Rockefeller to the board, which has caused wide discussion, was unsolicited and spontaneous, originating in an impulse of Mr. Rockefeller to further the work of the board.

LICKINGS LAST BEAR

Edwin Haughey Distinctly Remembers the Killing—His Wife Helped Eat Some of the Meat.

In connection with the story published in the Advocate of Thursday of last week regarding the killing of the last bear in Licking county, Mr. Edwin Haughey, an old resident of Newark, says that he distinctly remembers the occurrence. He says that it was killed on the old David Smith farm, south of the Licking river, about four miles east of Newark in the spring of 1851, as stated in the Advocate. It was shot by Zane Seymour and Alfred Channel. Mr. Haughey says that after the bear was killed the meat was distributed around among friends, and that his wife helped to eat it.

GAINED 73 POUNDS

"I got a bad cold and it continued to grow worse. I went to a doctor and he gave me some medicine, but that did me no good. I continued to get thin and weak and coughed most all the time. I went down in weight to 137 from 208 lbs. One day while I was sitting in my engine room after I had a bad coughing spell my fireman said to me 'Let me get you a bottle of Father John's Medicine. It will help you to get well.' Of course I laughed at him and told him that I thought my days would soon be over. He did go at last and get me a bottle of Father John's Medicine. I took it as directed, and began to get well right away. My cough stopped and before I had taken 3 bottles I commenced to be myself again, and now I am a well man. My weight is 210-14 pounds. I do advise all who are run down or have a cough or cold to take Father John's Medicine. It makes you well and builds you up." (Signed) W. F. Rogers, Chief Engineer Marblehead Building Association, Marblehead, Mass.

TALE OF A FISH AND DIAMOND RING

PRETTY LITTLE FAIRY STORY THAT IS TOLD ABOUT A NEWARK BARBER.

J. P. Harris Said to Have Caught a Carp That Stole His Diamond Ring 14 Years Ago.

Bladensburg, O., March 28.—J. P. Harris, formerly a Knox county boy, but now residing in Newark, who is well known as a tonsorial artist, employed at J. E. Evans' barber shop, a few days ago, while visiting his old home near Mt. Zion, had an experience which recalled the losing of a valuable diamond ring when a small boy, in short, the story is explained thus:

About fourteen years ago, while fishing along the banks of Wakatomika creek, a small carp was swung safely to the shore. While loosening the hook from the fish's mouth his diamond ring accidentally slipped off of the finger into the fish's mouth and was swallowed by the fish. Through the excitement the boy lost his hold and the fish flopped into the water and swam safely away. The young Mr. Harris felt very sorry and returned home, never expecting to see either the fish or the ring again.

To his joy and surprise last Thursday while fishing near the same place, a hard pull on the line told him that an old settler had taken a bite. One terrific pull by the aid of his comrade landed a 28 pound carp on the bank. No trouble was experienced this time and as the fish was being prepared for cooking, the ring was found in its stomach, and strange to say the ring and the fish had grown alike, so that it fit his finger quite as well as 14 years before. Mr. Harris has returned from his trip among the hulk of Wakatomika, and reports a good time and a lively visit. Mr. Harris, 19 North Third street, Newark, O., will vouch for the statements here given.

REAL ESTATE NOTES

Paragraphs Picked Up Over the City Showing Transfers of Property, Building Permits.

Mr. J. H. Harrigan, general manager of the traction lines, has bought one of Mr. W. S. Welant's new houses on Hudson avenue.

Mr. Marshall J. Riggs, a prominent carpenter and contractor of Marietta, will remove his family to Newark about the first of the month, and will make his future home here. He has just purchased through Fred C. Evans, the Frank Gleichauf property, consisting of a five-room house and lot on Seventh street, for a consideration of $1,500.

A lot belonging to T. J. McKinsey, on Commodore street, has been sold to Mrs. Martha Singler, the well-known school teacher, for a consideration of $750. The lot is 50x60 feet, and is in a very desirable location.

The old tool room on the first floor of the City Hall building, is being remodelled and fitted up in fine style, to be occupied as an office room. It will be used by City Engineer Wells, while the Board of Public Service will occupy the room vacated by him on the second floor. The room occupied by the Board of Public Service at present will be used in connection with the work of the City Auditor and the Board of Sinking Fund trustees.

There seems to be a strong likelihood of difficulty between the building contractors and the building trades' unions of Zanesville over the question of wages this spring, and the prospects of a strike are too strong to be pleasant. Following the recent determination of the trades' unions of that city to consolidate into one body, it is announced that the contractors have determined upon a similar step, and a meeting will be held within a day or two to consider the proposition, and also to determine as to whether the demands recently made by certain unions shall be granted. A prominent contractor of Zanesville stated that the demands would not be granted and further that all building operations would be suspended before the unions would be allowed to carry their point.

AUTO. OWNERS

WILL RESIST A PROPOSITION TO LICENSE MACHINES.

There are Now Thirty-Three Automobiles Owned in Newark and More are Coming Right Along.

War between the automobile owners of the city and the city dads will likely follow any attempt of the city council to pass an ordinance which will require the owners of machines to pay a tax or license.

In many of Ohio cities, ordinances of this kind have been passed and the ever increasing number of machines in Newark may require some sort of legislation in the near future.

In an interview with an Advocate reporter Tuesday, Mayor Crilly stated that the city ordinance had made no provision whatever for speed regulation, licensing of numbering the machines. "I would like to see Newark have an ordinance similar to that which was passed by the Columbus city council," said Mayor Crilly. "The number is increasing here every month, and it is time that some action should be taken by the council."

An automobile dealer stated Tuesday that any such action by the council would be bitterly fought by the owners of machines. A club will be organized within a short time to prevent such an ordinance being passed.

"Such a law as has been passed in Columbus is very foolish," said the auto man. "An automobile can make four hundred trips over any road, and not do so much damage as one trip of a team of heavy draught horses, and a heavily loaded wagon. The rubber tires on the cars are wide and practically no damage at all is done to the highways. If an owner of a car takes out as state license, that is sufficient and he should not be required to pay a city license in addition."

Last year Newark had twenty-seven automobiles of all kinds. Already this year at least six machines have been purchased by Newark citizens. "We have trouble keeping our customers in the notion of buying in Newark until we can supply them with the machine wanted," said the dealer.

It is said that Dr. O. P. Cook owned the first auto brought to Newark.

RACE MEETING

WILL BE HELD AT OLD FORT TRACK IN JULY.

Newark Association Decides to Have a Four Day Meeting Here Beginning July 3.

A meeting of the Newark Driving Park Association was held Monday evening when the preliminary arrangements were made for holding a four-day meeting at the Idlewild Park half-mile track, beginning July 4.

The members decided to have twelve races, with purses from $400 down.

In past years the race meeting has been held here late in the fall, but this season the members decided to try a mid-summer event. The leading horsemen of the city are interested in this association. The best of races will be here and as usual a fine line of sport will be afforded.

The following events have been decided upon: Free-for-all pace, purse, $1000; 2:13, 2:17, 2:20, 2:24 and 2:30 pace, with $300 purse each; free-for-all trot, purse, $400; 2:18, 2:21, 2:24, 2:27 and 2:35 trots, with purse of $300 each.

POPULAR ASSEMBLY

Soon to be Chosen by Natives of the Philippines—A Census of Islands as Been Completed.

Washington, March 28.—The census of the Philippine Islands has been completed, and Secretary of War Taft has apprised President Roosevelt of the fact.

Under the law of 1902 two years from this date the president shall direct the Philippine commission to call a general election for the choice of delegates to a popular assembly. All legislative power in the islands will thereafter be vested in a legislature consisting of two houses, the Philippine commission and the Philippine assembly. The conditions upon which the election is to be called is that complete peace shall have continued in the territory of the islands not occupied by Moros or other non-Christian tribes. The popular election is not extend to the Moro tribes. Two resident commissioners to the United States will be elected when a legislature is chosen.

The Spanish government has never been able to recover from Cuba the ordinance left there at the termination of the Spanish-American war, and Senator Ojeda called upon Secretary Taft to learn the position of this government in the matter. Under the terms of peace, it was held that Spain was entitled to all of the movable ordinance in Cuba and Porto Rico, and in the latter case the claim was recognized and the ordinance transferred. But in the case of Cuba there appears to be some difficulty in securing recognition by the Cuban government of the obligation entered into by the United States.

DR. D. P. PUTNAM

Whose Father for Forty Years Was a Licking County Minister, Died at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Douglas P. Putnam, D. D., of the Lane Seminary faculty at Cincinnati, who was well known in Newark and western Licking county, his father, Rev. Charles Marsh Putnam, having been pastor of the Presbyterian church at Jersey for more than 40 years, died Sunday. He was also a relative of Judge E. M. P. Brister, of Newark, and of Mr. Rufus Putnam and son John of this city.

Dr. Putnam's death, while preceded by a few days' sickness, came suddenly. Dr. Putnam was a great grandson of General Israel Putnam, of Revolutionary fame. He prepared for the ministry at Marietta and Washburn colleges and at Union and Lane Theological Seminaries. He was born in 1844. While quite young he enlisted in the army during the Civil war, and was a member of the G. A. R. His pastorates, which have been uniformly successful, were widely distributed.

He was pastor 10 years at Monroe, Mich.; 6 years at Springfield, Mo.; 12 years in the First Presbyterian church of Logansport, Ind., and nearly 4 years at Princeton, Ind. From this charge he came last fall to Lane Seminary. For many years he was a correspondent of the New York Evangelist, writing under the nom de plume of "The Front Porch."

His acquaintance and work in the northern and southern parts of the country, made him a very suitable and valuable member of the committee of the Presbyterian General Assembly on the Cumberland Presbyterian church. He was enthusiastic in his desire for union, and labored earnestly to bring it about. His sermons in the pulpit and pastorate eminently fitted him for his chair—that of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology. For many years he was a member of the board of trustees of Lane Seminary.

Besides his brothers and sisters, he leaves his aged wife and three children, a son and two daughters.

The funeral will be held from the Swinehart home at Glenford at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, the Rev. Mr. Sheffer of Roseville officiating. Interment will be made in the Shelly cemetery.

RAILWAY RUMBLES

PRESIDENT BLACK OF BOARD OF TRADE WRITES FITZGERALD.

Effort Will be Made to Land the New Shops—Budget of Local Railway Paragraphs.

The publication Monday evening of the intention of the B. & O. railroad company to erect new shops west of the Ohio river to employ about 2,000 men, and that Newark has a chance of securing this big industry, was read with much interest in this city.

Superintendent F. C. Batchelder in Cleveland and the officials here are not in position to discuss the project, but as soon as the attention of Mr. F. M. Black, president of the Board of Trade, was called to the matter, he wrote to the general manager of the company at Baltimore to ascertain what Newark can do to land the prize.

It is known that Mr. Fitzgerald has a warm place in his heart for Newark and would like to see the shops located in this city. The present shops here have a pay roll of $10,000 to $15,000 a month, and employ about 900 men.

Change in Superintendents.

No further announcement is made at the local offices today regarding the transfer of Mr. Batchelder to the Chicago division and the removal of Jas. F. Irwin from Connellsville, Pa., to Newark. Mr. Irwin, as already announced, is to take charge of the Newark office next Saturday.

Movement of Freight Cars.

Philadelphia, March 28.—On Sunday the movement of freight cars on the Pennsylvania railroad was the largest in the history of the company. On that day 7,191 cars were sent forward. To make this movement it took 120 trains. On the previous day there were 6,514 cars moved, making a total for the two days of 13,705 cars that were forwarded to their destinations.

Doors are Removed.

The large storm doors on the round house, which were hung early in December, are being removed, this being one of the first signs of spring about the shops.

JAMES F. IRWIN

A Few Facts About the Life of New B. & O. Superintendent Who Comes Here Saturday.

Jas. T. Irwin, who April 1 will be come superintendent of the B. & O. at Newark, started as a boy and received his excellent railroad training with the Baltimore & Ohio. He was born near Newark, Ohio, in 1852, and spent his early boyhood days working on a farm most of the time until 1870. From then until 1872 he was employed during the summer and fall months on track labor and telegraph line construction work on the Newark division of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and attending school and learning telegraphy during the winter months. From March, 1872, to November, 1880, he was employed as a telegraph operator on the Lake Erie division of the Baltimore & Ohio. November, 1880, he was transferred to Newark as train dispatcher, and remaining in that position until 1892, when he was promoted to chief train dispatcher and served in that position until January 1, 1897, when he was promoted to train master of the Ohio division. He filled that position until April, 1900, when he was transferred to the office of the General Superintendent of Transportation at Baltimore, and placed in charge of the distribution of power on the Baltimore & Ohio system. November 1 he was transferred to train master of the Connellsville division and in October, 1901, he was promoted to Superintendent of the same division.

Mr. J. A. Spielman, who has been superintendent of the Chicago division, will probably be transferred to the position of Division Engineer of the Chicago division.

Mr. F. C. Batchelder, who leaves Newark April 1, was born on a farm in Wisconsin in 1857, and entered the service of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway as telegraph operator in 1874. He was with that company until 1888 filling positions as telegraph operator, agent, train dispatcher and chief train dispatcher. Then he went to the Soo Line and served as train dispatcher, chief train dispatcher, assistant superintendent and division superintendent successively until 1899. July 1, 1899, he came to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad as superintendent of the Chicago division, and has been with the road since as division superintendent.

TRUE
Before Mother's Friend was introduced.
The older the prospective mother be the more difficult the ordeal through which she must pass before she experiences the glory of the maternal state. This was true before.

Mother's Friend
was introduced, but now tangible evidence in the shape of countless mothers of advanced years who have used it with entire success forces us to gladly refute the integrity of this statement. Old or young, the result is the same. It is simply indispensable during the parturient state, and absolutely invaluable at the crucial time.

OLD BLUE WILLOW

We have just received from England a lot of this famous Old Blue Willow Ware. This pattern was originated and manufactured by the Chinese over two thousand years ago and was introduced into the English potteries about the Eighteenth century. Blue Willow is very popular now, being an under glazed decoration and printed on the highest grade of English Porcelain and are very moderate in price. We carry it in open stock and can be matched as ready as white ware in years to come.

WATER WORKS SUIT DECIDED APRIL 1

JUDGE SEWARD WILL PROBABLY RENDER HIS DECISION THAT DAY.

Outline of the Arguments Made in the Closing Hours of Injunction Case Monday Afternoon.

Judge Seward adjourned court until Saturday morning, when it is possible a decision will be announced.

Judge J. D. Jones.

Plaintiff John David Jones for the plaintiff followed Mr. Kibler Monday afternoon. He said in part:

The subject matter of the pleadings in this case embraces two questions:

1. Was the sale of the bonds made at private sale, unlawful, the public sale having been enjoined by the court.
2. Have the bonds since the sale been disposed of to innocent purchasers, which embraces the question whether the first purchasers were innocent purchasers.

As to the first question, the contention of some of the defendants, that the injunction writ was not served until 12 o'clock noon on December 15 last is shown, I think, by the return of the sheriff to be incorrect, the weight of the testimony, in other respects, I think, will be found against the proposition.

Upon the legality or illegality of this private sale in whatever phase it may arise in the case it depends for its solution upon the determination of whether the advertisement and reception of bids, which was either stopped by the order of the court, or voluntarily ended by the officers of the city, was such an offering of the bonds at public sale as under the provisions of Sec. 97 of the code would authorize the sale of them at private sale.

I contend, therefore, that the nature of a public sale requires that in order to complete it, the offer of sale must be held open until the hammer falls or the sale is frustrated for lack of bids.

The fact afterwards alleged that the court dissolved the injunction has no pertinence to this inquiry, because they are not seeking to justify a sale of these bonds upon the bids then made under the notice then published.

It is easy to see from this allegation that the service of the injunction, whether before or after noon, stopped the sale and the bids were handed back to those of the bidders who were present or represented and were by them accepted. What became of the bids of those not present we are not advised. However, all this may be, if I may call it, had authority to hand back the bids or to agree that the bidders might withdraw them and consider the sale off they cannot say now that there was an offering at public sale, and having so decided there, in their official capacity, they cannot now as individuals say otherwise.

Proceeding further in the case, it does not appear by any proper evidence that there was no sale for want of bids, or that there was a sale at private sale upon the failure of a sale at public sale.

The committee say that this determination and joint session, was according to law. There is no statute or other authority that I can find, for any such joint action or giving legal effect to any such joint action.

There is no authorization for that board to take any vote, or for any organization of it or any authority for them to act upon the bids or to award the sale or decide who is the highest bidder, or to decide that the bonds have not been sold for want of bids, or to make any order that the sale be made at private sale for want of bidders.

Judge Jones gave a history of the case and the proceedings from the time of the vote by the people on the water works question up to the present. In this matter Judge Jones dwelt upon the fact that no prompt action had been taken by the city officials to advertise the sale of the bonds after the passage of the ordinance by the city council in the month of May, 1904, and that there had been no advertisement published for the sale of said bonds until the 15th of November thereafter, which delay the Judge maintained, was inexcusable on the part of the city officials.

Mr. Jones in concluding claimed that this private sale of the bonds was illegal for these reasons:

1. Because they had not been once offered at public sale as required by the statute, 97 of the code, either (a) the sale was stopped by the writ of injunction, or (b) to the same effect, in case the city officials agreed with the bidders to a withdrawal of the bids and an agreement that the sale be declared off or that the sale was off. In either case there was no offer at public sale.
2. The officers pretending to act in the determination of the fact that there had arisen the contingency authorizing a private sale and that such sale should be made, had no power to act in any of the above particulars and had no power to order a private sale.

3. There is no ordinance or resolution of the council authorizing the private sale. There is no question of innocent purchaser of these bonds in the case.

4. Several cases covering these points were cited. In the last case Delaford vs. Ill, 26 Wend. 132, it is shown that where state or public bonds are unlawfully disposed of, and they are not in the hands of innocent purchasers, they will be ordered to be cancelled and delivered up.

J. A. Flory's Argument.

Mr. Jesse Flory, attorney for the plaintiff, closed the arguments of the afternoon session and in his remarks said:

We claim the bonds should be declared null and void, and ordered delivered up for cancellation for the reason that they were not legally issued.

1. Because these bonds given to the defendants, Denison, Prior & Co., and Seasongood and Mayer, were not authorized by any proceeding of the city council.
2. That the bonds were not offered and sold as required by law.

First—The bonds could be issued and sold only by and according to the proper ordinance and direction of the city council. R. S. Sec. 2835, Ohio M. C. 287.

The things required by law to be performed by the council, cannot be delegated to others.

There was no authority given to any one to sell these bonds except by advertisement and public sale and there was no power in these city officers to sell and issue the bonds except at public sale, and if the bonds were not disposed of at public sale for want of bidders, that fact must be reported to the city council and that body by ordinance or resolution authorize their sale at private sale.

Second—The attempt of the officers to sell and issue the bonds at private sale was illegal and made the transaction void. The council could not authorize the bonds to be sold and officers could not sell the bonds at private sale until after the bonds had been advertised and offered for sale at public sale and not sold for want of bidders.

The only manner in which, bonds can be sold is prescribed by Section 97 of New Code or 2709 of old and 1536, 288 and 1536, 289 of Bates State, both of which are in force. The sections required:

1. The bonds shall be sold to the trustee of the Sinking fund. If they refuse to take them.
2. To be sold to the highest and best bidder after thirty days notice setting forth among other things, the time and place of sale and
3. When any such bonds have been once so advertised and offered for public sale and remain unsold, then, and not until then, can the bonds be sold at private sale. The object of this statute is "publicity and competition." This is not accomplished by the advertising of a public sale, receiving bids, and declaring the sale off and handing back the bids as attempted in this case.

What was the use of this advertisement, attracting a large number of bidders when all bids were handed back to respective bidders without being opened, the printing press put to work on Sunday printing bonds, and these officials, without notice to any person, rushing off to Cleveland, O. and selling the bonds at private sale before anyone could find it out? Such a proceeding instead of being a compliance was a gross violation of the spirit and express terms of the statutes.

In our view this renders the contract (for sale of bonds) open to one of the vital objections urged against it and upon this ground we hold it to be unauthorized.

Any claim by the defendants that the bonds have been sold to bona fide purchasers is no defense and has no place in this action.

When the illegal act is shown, the court must grant relief in restraining the defendants from carrying out the illegal transaction or contract.

Continuing at great length Mr. Flory said that it is the duty of the city solicitor to commence the suit. In stead of so doing he was the principal party to the commission of the act. Why did he need any time to look in to the matter with which he was more familiar than any other living person? He had, in violation of all legal ethics and professional honor, brought a suit he did not think was right simply to throw it down. He did not intend to do anything but play false to the taxpayer, in order to give the parties opportunity to consummate the transaction. His duty as a lawyer was to do everything openly and above board. When a lawyer thinks he must resort to subterfuge and trickery he is working the greatest mistake of his professional life and the court should correct it.

Mr. Flory's argument closed the afternoon session Monday and court adjourned until 7 p. m. when Rodrick Jones for the plaintiff closed the argument for the prosecution.

Following Mr. Jones, Mr. Stasel for the defendants, closed the argument and the case was submitted to the court. Mr. Stasel endeavored to show that a large part of Mr. Jones' argument was incorrect, regarding the interest figures, and showed that while the $58,000 bond issue recently made would net the purchaser 4.38 per cent the $300,000 bond sale would only net the purchaser 4.25 per cent, and be cheaper for the city as on a 4 per cent basis the bonds would give the purchaser a profit of $7,000, and this is not as large a profit as people dealing in other commodities would receive.

Continuing Mr. Stasel said: "Judge Jones claims that the committee could not sell the bonds and that the city council had to do this, but he was quoting the old law, which was in force prior to 1898. At this time the legislature amended the statute giving the finance committee, auditor and mayor the authority to sell the bonds at private sale."

In closing Mr. Stasel scored Mr. Veach and said that he was fighting time and likewise the referendum of the citizens of Newark for the benefit of the corporation by which he was employed.

Mr. Stasel's talk concluded the arguments of counsel and the case was submitted to the court.

McCloud-Stottler Case.

J. A. Flory, as guardian of Catherine McCloud, an imbecile, has commenced suit against Carl Norpell, as administrator of the estate of Mary J. Stottler. The plaintiff says that Mrs. McCloud has been for several years of unsound mind, and incapable of taking care of her own business; that Miss Stottler was a sister of Mrs. McCloud, and acted as her agent. Plaintiff says that Mrs. McCloud was the owner of over $2,000, which money was on deposit in Newark. That in order to facilitate the performance of the business, Miss Stottler caused the money, to the amount of $2,000, to be changed into new investments in her name, until her death on August 9, 1903, at which time she held in her name the money of Catherine Erwin McCloud, on certificate of the Newark Trust company for $1,300; one certificate on the Home Building Association company for $400 and one certificate of the Homestead Building and Savings company for $300.

That on the death of Miss Stottler, the defendant, Norpell, was appointed administrator, and all of the certificates came into his hands, and he has since drawn the certificate on the Newark Trust company for $1,300, and the one on the Home Building Association company for $400, and the one on the Homestead Building and Savings company for $300, and has $1,800 of the amount represented by the certificates on deposit in the Licking County Building and Savings company of Newark, Ohio, in his name as administrator, and now holds the same as trustee for Catherine McCloud, and the plaintiff, as the guardian.

Of the $300 secured from the Homestead Building and Savings company, the defendant has paid to Catherine McCloud $200.

Plaintiff says that Carl Norpell, as administrator neglects and refuses to deliver up the certificates, or the proceeds and interest thereof, to plaintiff. He asks that the defendant be ordered to deliver to plaintiff all of the original certificates or certificates representing the proceeds thereof, and to account to the plaintiff for $1,800, with interest, from August 9, 1903, or if that cannot be done, that plaintiff have judgment against the defendant for $1,800 and interest from August 9, 1903, and all other and proper relief. Flory & Flory, attorneys for plaintiff.

Injunction Granted.

Late Monday evening Judge Charles W. Seward issued a temporary injunction restricting the Village of Hartford from cutting down a number of shade trees which Samuel H. Marvin, one of the defendants to the action, claims to have an interest. The action was brought at the request of Emanuel Benoy. Sheriff S. L. Redman served the injunction Monday night.

Newark Bank Gets Judgment.

Columbus, March 28—The Peoples National bank of Newark has sued Caroline Fendrich on a judgment for $1000 given by the Franklin county court of Common Pleas on January 7. Andrew Fendrich, executor of Adam Fendrich is made a party to the suit, as it is alleged that Caroline Fendrich has an interest in the estate. The bank was granted judgment against Caroline Fendrich for $1000 on a cognovit note by Judge Dillon yesterday.

Court Notes.

In the case of Edwin Doe vs. Florence I. Collins et al, the defendants have filed a demurrer to the petition for the reason that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action. Fulton & Fulton, attorneys for defendants.

J. C. Malone, administrator of Isaac Hayes, late of Granville township, has filed his first, final and distributive account.

S. S. Rurick has made application for the appointment of a guardian for Charles H. Rurick and John A. Rurick, minor heirs of Julia A. Rurick, deceased.

To Dissolve Injunction.

In the case of Conde S. Davidson vs. Jacob Higgins et al, the defendants have filed a motion to dissolve the injunction heretofore allowed for the following reasons:

1. The allegations of the petition are untrue.
2. That the petition does not state facts entitling the plaintiffs to an injunction.
3. For the reason that the plaintiff is estopped by his laches from claiming the relief sought. F. V. Owen and Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for defendants.

BUILDING A ROAD TO GOLD MINE

WORK ON AMALGAMATOR HOUSE IS COMPLETED BY LICKING MINING COMPANY.

Now Negotiating for More Machinery With Which to Start Business in Month of May.

The new amalgamator house, twenty by sixty-five feet in size, at the Licking Mining company's property south of the Children's Home, is now completed, said Secretary J. E. Stinger to the Advocate Tuesday morning and as soon as the roadway from the main road to the company's property is finished, the heavy machinery now in Newark will be taken to the site where the company early in May will begin to mine gold.

Mr. Stinger says that it was necessary to build a road to the mine owing to the great weight of the apparatus to be used in the mine. A heavy cement floor has just been put in the amalgamator house. Mr. Samuel Morris is now negotiating for the purchase of an engine and other machinery necessary to put the mine in operation.

The company is not prepared to say what amount of stock has been issued but the managers say that enough stock is in the hands of purchasers to insure the development of the property. Recent prospecting has been done and this it is claimed is highly satisfactory. Besides gold at various depths over the company's property the owners have come across a big deposit of valuable clay which in itself is said to be worth much.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Ghastly Discovery Made Near Summit Station About Noon Tuesday--Coroner Legge Notified--Initials "B. H." In Dead Man's Hat.

An unknown man was found dead along the B. & O. tracks, one mile west of Summit Station Tuesday morning, shortly before noon. The ghastly discovery was made by the train crew of B. & O. passenger train No. 104 which is due there about 12:30 o'clock and it is thought that the man was killed by a freight train which went west shortly before the passenger trains. The station agent at Summit was notified of the accident and section men took the body to the freight house there.

The dead man is poorly dressed and is from all appearances about 50 years old. In the stiff hat which he wore are the initials "B. H." but no further mark of identification could be found. The body was not mangled, but the skull was crushed in, this wound evidently causing his death.

Coroner C. F. Legge was notified by telegraph and arrived at Summit Station about 2 o'clock to view the remains.

FOUND $6 CHECK

AND GIRL TRIED TO CASH IT AT THAD MONTGOMERY'S BANK.

Young Woman Finally Broke Down After Forging Owner's Name and Admitted Money Wasn't Hers.

Thad L. Montgomery, the former Newark man, who is cashier of the thriving Coshocton National bank, had a peculiar experience with an amateur criminal Monday. A Coshocton girl committed forgery.

A girl perhaps 18 presented to the cashier a check for six dollars. The check was issued by S. H. Nicholas, as secretary of the Zanesville, Cambridge and Northern Traction company and payable to Emma K. Williams.

Mr. Montgomery inquired "Is this your name?" The girl replied that it was and was informed that it would be necessary for her to endorse it on the back. The color began to leave the girl's face and she commenced biting her finger nails nervously. Mr. Montgomery pointed to the pen at the desk and the girl signed the check "Emma K. Williams" and handed it back.

The writing was very illegible and by this time Mr. Montgomery's suspicions were aroused. The girl told him that her mother had done some work for the company but that the check was made payable to her. Mr. Montgomery decided to investigate by calling Mr. Nichols. The girl waited. The circumstances were explained to Mr. Nichols and in a few minutes he came with his stenographer. Miss Emma Williams and the strange girl followed them. He did not know the young lady who had presented the check but he had issued the check to Miss Williams, who had lost it. By this time the strange girl broke down and the whole matter was clear. She had found the check and decided to try to collect the money.

MERE BOY

Had a Loaded Gun and Held Up the Schoolteachers and His Father at Barborton.

Akron, O., March 28--With a loaded revolver Mack Detrie, aged 14, yesterday afternoon held up the teachers and some pupils of the Barborton High school.

School had just been dismissed when the boy walked in and flourished the revolver. He commanded the first teacher he met to "hold up her hands." She complied, and he went on to the merry "Ha! Ha!" He went into one room after another, holding up teachers and pupils. Then he rushed off to his father's blacksmith shop and commanded the old man to hold up his hands.

The father finally got the revolver, turned the boy over his knee and gave him a severe spanking.

Crete and Greece.

Constantinople, March 28--It is to day reported that several hundred Cretans have gathered in the mountains near Candia and have proclaimed a union of Crete with Greece. A provisional government is said to have been established under Venizelos, one of the leaders in the movement for annexation. Prince George has sent troops to displace the revolutionists and has requested the British contingent in Candia to guard the public places.

MAIL TOO HEAVY

POSTMASTER WIRED TO WASHINGTON MONDAY NOON

For Permission to Put Substitutes on For Afternoon--No Reply Was Received Till 8 p. m.

Newark has twelve mail carriers and business enough to keep sixteen men busy. The town has been growing and spreading over so much territory that the present force of carriers is wholly inadequate. Postmaster Ickes has made repeated efforts to have the carrier force increased, but without result.

The big increase in amount of business done at the Newark postoffice, the receipts from the sale of stamps and increase also in the money order department justify an increase in the force of carriers so that Newark people may have their mail delivered promptly upon its arrival in the city.

The rules of the department will not permit the regular force to work more than eight hours and violation of the order merits dismissal from the service.

At noon Monday the incoming mail was especially heavy and seeing that the regular force would be swamped, Postmaster Ickes telegraphed the department asking permission to put the two substitutes on for the afternoon. A reply granting the request was received at 8 o'clock Monday evening--too late of course, to be of any service.

As yet neither Postmaster Ickes nor the new postmaster, George D. Helsey, has received word saying when the change in the management of the Newark office will be made.

LAD'S MOTHER CAUSES ARREST OF FRED HARRINGTON ON THIS CHARGE.

Alleged that the Child Was Made Thoroughly Drunk--Hearing Before Mayor Wednesday.

Mrs. Nancy Haffer swore out a warrant in Mayor Crilly's court against Fred Harrington, charging him with making her little seven year old son beastly drunk on last Saturday, by giving him liquor. The warrant was placed in the hands of Officer Zergibel, who found Harrington on South Fourth street, near the Klondike saloon, about 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning. When he attempted to arrest him, Harrington resisted, and it was not until Chief Sheridan came to Zergibel's assistance that the fellow was arrested and lodged in the city prison. He will have his hearing before Mayor Crilly on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock.
